

To The Parents

Letter People We finished up our study of long vowel sounds with Ms. E and Ms. U this week. We also learned about Ms. Y's new sounds as the Sometimes LetterLight. She makes her yodeling yawn sound only at the start of a word. She sounds like Mr. I in the middle of words or at the end of one-syllable words (gym, type, shy, cry). She sounds like Ms. E at the end of two syllable words (funny, happy, etc.).

Reading We continue to read aloud. Keep practicing at home!

Math This week we practiced measuring inches and centimeters with rulers. We also worked on addition and subtraction facts for the sums of 14 and 15. We drew the 14 Giraffe and the 15 Fisherman.

Religion We learned that the Ten Commandments tell us to respect and honor other people and ourselves.

DEAR Books We are finished with DEAR books for this year! Thanks for all your hard work! If you happen to see any stray DEAR books around the house please send them in!

Spelling Homework for next week is Unit 33. Pages 165-168 will be checked on Thursday. The test will be on Friday.

See you at the festival!
