The artwork coming home today is collaborative artwork completed by the eighth graders and preschoolers. The eighth graders will receive their projects during their graduation dinner and your preschooler is bringing his or hers home today. I like this project because I see it representing the cycle here at St. Brigid. In a few short years, your preschooler will be an eighth grader moving on to high school. We are all part of God's plan and He is with us as we travel from one stage of our lives to the next.

On Thursday and Friday, we will end the year with our Pancakes and Pajamas celebration. For this celebration, send your child to school in comfortable PJs keeping in mind safety, mobility, and modesty. We will cook pancakes for the snack. The children will make the batter and the teachers will be cooking the pancakes in the room.

On June 1 the preschool will spend the morning beginning at 10:00 at Wegrzyn Gardens Metro Park at 1301 Siebenthaler Ave. in Dayton. The children will do an activity with a park representative. Following the activity, we will have a picnic. Each child and guardian will bring their own picnic lunch. Families are welcome to get together and form group picnic menus if they would like. Siblings are welcome to share the day with us. Any siblings that come will not be able to participate in the activity with the park representative, but they may still enjoy the gardens and picnic with us. This entire outing should end by 1:00. If the weather does not cooperate, we will do an activity and picnic in the multipurpose room in the park building.

The park has a wading stream and a water fall. Please consider your child's footwear and clothing if you would like them to go in the water.

We must have a count of preschoolers attending the Wegrzyn event. The park needs to know how many supplies to have on hand for the activity. I will be checking on Monday and Tuesday to confirm those who have RSVP'd. It must be stressed that if your child's name is not on our RSVP list, your child will not be able to do the activity with the park representative. Thank you for your help with this.
