From the Desk of Mrs. Cassidy

I would like to share this Thanksgiving Day blessing with you and your families. It is from the book Let's Say Grace by Robert M. Hamma

Bountiful God, you have blessed us in many ways, in the beauty and richness of our land, and in the freedom we enjoy. You have given us even greater gifts in our family who loves and cares for us and in the grace which allows us to know and believe in you. May we be grateful for all our blessings, not just today, but every day. Help us to turn our gratitude into action by caring for those in need and by working for a more just society. Bless this wonderful meal before us and each of us at this table. Be with all those we love who are not here. We give you thanks through Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Good News: Happy Thanksgiving

Next Sunday's Gospel: Advent begins and we will be listening to Luke's infancy narrative.

Faith Fact of the Week: No Faith Fact this week.

Letter People: We will be reviewing Letter People this week. . This week we will be bringing home Mr. H's booklet. This is a pre-decodable book. It is designed to offer children a positive preliminary reading experience. Children love these simple stories about Letter People characters. You may want to make flash cards out of index cards with the words at the end of each story and keep them on a word ring. The words for the word ring this week are (is, there). Save the booklet for a great summer review. The following words are a complete list of the words your child should be practicing on the word ring. {I, like, to, and, are, you, do, see, the, made, my, made, my}

Number Workers: Count to 100 once with your child this week.

Rhyme of the Week: No Rhyme this week.

DEAR Books: Read your own wonderful Thanksgiving Books this week.

Science: This week we will be sorting and classifying animals according to their basic habitat.

Refills Needed: We need wet wipes and antibacterial wet wipe for our classrooms. Please bring some in after Thanksgiving. We would greatly appreciate. Thanks again.

We will be collecting can goods for one more day for the area-wide FISH Pantry. We will not attend mass on Tuesday, November 24. Our next mass will be December 8, 10:00 am the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.
